Ttttttttttt Numb. 6618.

The Daily Courant.

Monday, January 7. 1723.

London, January 7.

On Saturday arrived a Mail from Holland, and Yesterday one from France.

Vienna, December 26.

THE Court being determined to set out for Prague next Spring, Count Gundaker d'Althan, Director-General of the Emperour's Buildings and Gardens, went thither Post some Days ago, as did several other Officers of the Houshold, to make the necessary Preparations for fitting up Lodgings in the Palace against the Arrival of the Court. - - - Some Days ago an Edict was published here, forbidding the Common People to wear Swords. - - - Notwithstanding the Solicitation of the Court of Rome to diswade the Emperour to cause his Mandates to be executed for redressing the Grievances of Protestants in the Empire, his Imperial Majesty is firmly resolved to give Satisfaction on that Head, and appoint a Commission of Execution. - - - The Electors, and other Princes of the Empire, are to be invited to meet at Prague, to assist at the Coronation of the Emperour and Empress as King and Queen of Bohemia: 'Tis said that the Election of a King of the Romans will also be treated upon in that Assembly, and other Matters of Importance. The Empress has wrote to the Elector of Mayence, inviting him to perform the Office of her Coronation: Her Imperial Majesty desires it the rather, because she abjured the Lutheran Religion before him in the Year 1707 at Bamberg: The Archbishop of Prague opposes the other's performing the Ceremonial, pretending that Honour is due to himself by vertue of his Office; and having been formerly very intimate with the Pope when they both resided at Lisbon, one in Quality of Nuncio, and the other as Ambassadour from Vienna, he has now wrote to his Holiness, desiring him to support his Pretentions with the Emperour. 'Tis generally reported, that the Affair concerning the Investiture of the Dutchies of Bremen and Verdhen is entirely settled. - - Advices from Constantinople say, that Gionum Coggia, the Turks Admiral, labours indefatigably in fitting out the Fleet, and that it will be the most numerous of any which has yet been sent out by the Porte. - - - The Ministers of Bavaria and Munster who are at Ratisbon assure, that the News of the Electoral Princess of Bavaria's being with Child is publickly declared. About a Year ago the Count de Cifuentes affronted publickly Count Thorring the Minister of Bavaria: The Emperour ordered him to make his Submission to that Minister; but he not obeying, kept himself concealed in the Neighbourhood of this City about ten Days, though his Friends advised him to comply. He then went privately to Genoa, and after about a Month's Stay there repaired to Milan, yielded himself a Prisoner and was confined there in the Castle. He remained there four or five Months, without any Notification made of it to the Elector of Bavaria: At length Count Sinzendorff ordered the Deputy of the States of Liege to write on his Part to that Elector, that the Count de Cifuentes having been so long a Time detained Prisoner, for insulting Count Thorring, the Emperour expected the Elector himself would desire he should be released, in Default of which he would of course be discharged. This Letter came to the Elector's Hands much about the Time the Electoral Prince was here to marry the Archdutchess. The Elector therefore delayed to return an Answer, as judging it not proper to declare then his Dissatisfaction at the Proposal made to him; but he has within these few Days returned Answer to the Deputy of Liege, that the Count de Cifuentes having shewn so little Respect for the Emperour, had well deserved from his Imperial Majesty the Punishment he had undergone; but that this was no Satisfaction to him (the Elector,) who hoped his Imperial Majesty would according to his Promise, oblige the Count de Cifuentes to make Satisfaction proportionable to the Insult offered to his Minister; that the said Insult did not concern him alone, but equally all the Princes who send Ministers to this Court, and especially the Electoral College, before which he should be obliged to lay the whole Affair, if contrary to his Expectation the Emperour should not procure him sufficient Satisfaction. Before this Answer came from the Elector, the Count de Cifuentes had been discharged, and was arrived here.

Madrid, Dec. 28. His Catholick Majesty has caused an Order to be published, for removing to the Frontiers of Castile the Custom Houses which Cardinal Alberoni had established in the Ports of Biscay. This will certainly revive Commerce in the Province of Biscay, in which it was almost intirely decayed. The Princess of Asturias was a few Days ago taken ill of a St. Anthony's Fire, accompanied with a violent Fever; for which she was blooded twice in one Day, but at present is thought to be intirely out of Danger.

Berne, Jan. 2. Yesterday at Four in the Morning a Fire accidentally broke out in the House of M. Turringuer, Professour in Mathematicks and and History; who being surprized in his Appartment by the Flames, had no other way to save himself than by venturing to leap out at Window, which he did, but had the Misfortune to be so much bruised that he died in two Hours after, aged upwards of 70. Advices from Italy say, the Venetians are very apprehensive for the Safety of their State upon Account of the Turks great Preparations.

Paris, Jan. 13. The Duke Regent and the Cardinal du Bois have given Direction for preparing several Edicts that are to be brought to the Parliament to be registred on the Day the King holds his Bed of Justice at his Majority. - - - - - It is reported, that all the different Orders of St. Francis are to be re-united to that of the Cordeliers, or Grey-Fryars. - - - - - The Cardinal du Bois has declared in Publick, that all Sums due to the Troops shall be paid in four Months at the furthest, and that the Clothiers and others who have furnished Necessaries to the Troops shall be paid all that is due to them in eight Months. Publick Notice is daily continued for exposing to Sale the Houses, Lands, and other Effects belonging to the Chief of the Mississippians who refuse to comply with their Taxes. - - - - - M. Valjoint, Councellour in Parliament, and Brother to the Chancellour Daguesseau, died of an Apoplexy the 4th Instant, at

Nine

Nine a-Clock at Night. - - - - - M. André, a noted Mississippian, has found Means to get his Tax abated from 7 or 8 Millions to 1800 Livres, for himself and his Brother. - - - - - The Actions continue varying, and several Persons get considerably by their Variations; last Week they rose to 1660 Livres, and fell afterwards to 1500. The Liquidations are yet about 22 Livres.

An absolute Cure for the KING's EVIL, in all its most dreadful Circumstances, by an admirable Electuary, which infallibly and quickly cures that Distemper in Old or Young; tho' never so bad, and of many Years standing. It assuredly causes any Soreness of the Eyes, and all Sores, Ulcers, or Fistula's in any Part of the Body to heal speedily; and all Swellings of the Glandules or Kernels to vanish as if by Enchantment: It effectually purifies the Blood and Juices, corrects their Sharpness, strikes at the very first Principle or Cause of the Evil, perfectly destroys it Root and Branch, and entirely compleats the Cure, so as never to return again, without the least Disorder, Trouble, or Confinement, and with such Safety, so soon, and in such a miraculous Manner, that one would almost think it was done by immediate Divine Assistance; in 2 Thousand Experiments it has not been once known to fail. It is to be had only at the Two Blue Posts in Haydon Yard in the Minories, at 5 s. a Pot, sealed up with Directions.

The HEMORRHOIDS or PILES of any Kind, or in either Sex, absolutely cured so as not to return again; by a pleasant Specifick Electuary, now recommended by the most celebrated Physicians, as the only certain Medicine for that Indisposition in the World; for in the sharpest Pain, and most miserable Torture, it gives surprizing Relief, and almost miraculous Ease: No sooner is it taken scarcely, but all manner of Uneasiness vanishes, as if by Inchantment, and the Patient becomes as perfectly well and free from Pain, as if no such Malady had ever been; and this it not only accomplishes for the present, in all Persons whatsoever, but also by totally subduing all Sharpness in the Blood and Juices, it certainly prevents any Return of the Piles for the future, so as entirely to cure that Illness, and thereby prevent Fistula's, and other dreadful Consequences, that cannot be too much dreaded. Hundreds of Men and Women, who had for many Years, more or less, been miserably afflicted with the Piles, have at once been perfectly cured by this great Remedy, to their no less Joy and Comfort, than Admiration. It is so safe that a sucking Child might take it without Inconvenience, for it never occasions the least Trouble or Disorder, and is so very agreeable, as not to give Distaste to the nicest Palate. Is sold only at Jacob's Coffee-house, against the Angel and Crown Tavern in Threadneedle-street, behind the Royal Exchange, at 5 s. a Pot, with Directions.
